

RBS High School FCCLA goes to Washington

Red Boiling Springs FCCLA members travel to the Washington D.C. 2009 National Cluster Meeting

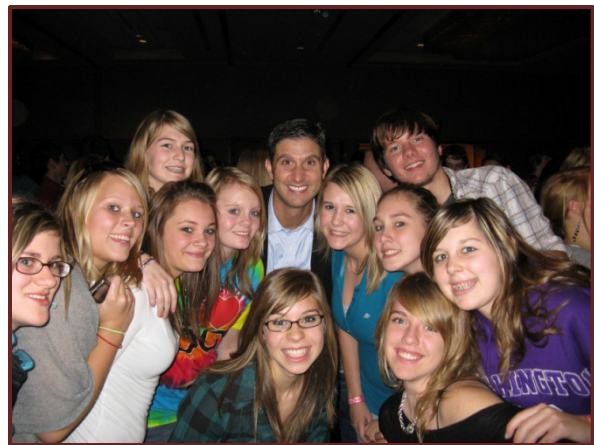

pledge, reinforcing the mission of FCCLA nationwide. Activities throughout the weekend included visiting many Washington monuments, the Smithsonian Institution and the White House. The meeting offered various presenters as well as a knowledge bowl.

Paul Vitale, an inspirational speaker who has worked with many NFL teams, including the Washington Redskins and the Minnesota Vikings, was the closing speaker. Vitale spoke to the group about achieving their goals in life. He inspired the participants to never let anyone tell them that they cannot do something. Following the meeting, a dance was held to celebrate the participants. Next year's meetings will be held in St. Louis, Missouri; Pittsburg, Pennsylvania and Charlotte, North Carolina.

Members of Red Boiling Springs' Family Career and Community Leaders of America traveled to the FCCLA National Cluster Meeting in Washington, D.C. on November 12, 2009.

FCCLA members Mackenzie Painter, Leah Whittemore, Faith Asberry, Kristen Davis, Halen Braswell and Kelsey Wilson participated in a weekend of leadership training, networking with other FCCLA members and fun. Teacher Sherree Eubank attended as advisor for RBS, with parent Mary Braswell as chaperone. FCCLA has a national membership of over 220,000 young men and women in nearly 7,000 chapters.

The National Cluster Meeting began with the FCCLA

Paul Vitale with FCCLA members during the Washington D.C. National Cluster Meeting