

Southern Arkansas University
A Tradition of Success for 100 Years

Paul Vitale speaks to LC & RC

Professional speaker and author, Paul Vitale, spoke to the Leadership College and Residential College on Monday, February 7. Beginning with the question “Do you consider yourself a leader?” Paul led the group in an interactive discussion of the Urgency of Leadership. “If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more, and become more, then many would consider you a leader.”

Paul demonstrated the urgency of leadership by showing five thought-provoking videos dealing with current issues. In technology, he encouraged the group to react to a video on internet trolling. A discussion of courageous leadership was the highlight of social issues. In health, the group discussed huffing among today’s youth.

Jessica Anderson, RA in the Residential College, said, “Paul’s use of videos showing us different ways to be a leader really got me excited about things I can do this semester.”

“I liked how Paul talked about the power of numbers – I am one leader...if I get you, then we are two...if we get another, then we are three...and that’s powerful. That gives me the courage to take the first step to start,” stated Blake Fulenwider, Resident Director of the Leadership College.

Paul Vitale, founder of Vital Communications, Inc., is a professional speaker and author based in Little Rock, Arkansas. He travels the globe presenting seminars and keynote presentations to various organizations while contributing content to regional and national publications. For additional information, visit paulvitale.com or call 501-663-1454.